Department:	Collection Custodian:
Control Checklist Overview
The following questions, though not all-inclusive, should be used as a tool to help the Collection Custodian establish and maintain the appropriate and effective internal cash controls which are acknowledged with the Cash Fund Control Plan. The Collection Custodian should be able to answer "Yes (Y)" to each question. Questions that are answered "No (N)" or "Not Applicable (N/A)" must be fully explained. Additionally, since each cash fund is unique, any special circumstances or cash control concerns that are not addressed though this checklist must be disclosed and fully explained. Additional disclosures and full explanations may be provided within or as attachments to the Cash Fund Control Plan.
Accounting for Cash as Received
Y N	N/A
	Is a restrictive endorsement placed on each incoming check immediately upon receipt?
	Are receipts controlled by cash register, pre-numbered receipts or equivalent means if payments are made in person?
	Does the employee assigned to the opening of incoming mail prepare a list of cash and checks received? Is this list balanced daily to bank deposit records (and Banner, if applicable)?
	Are receipts compared to the supporting documentation by persons other than those receiving payments and completing the receipts?
	Are pre-numbered receipts accounted for (used, unused and voided receipts)?
	Is a copy of each receipt maintained in the area?
	Is a copy of each receipt mailed or given to the customer?
	Are checks accepted only for the exact transaction amounts?
	Are postdated checks prohibited?
	Is proper ID requested when accepting checks?
Personnel and Segregation of Duties
Y N	N/A
	Are all personnel positions handling cash classified as security sensitive?
	Are procedures in place so that employees (including the custodian) do not have the authority to conduct a transaction from start to finish?
	Are the duties of receiving, depositing and reconciling cash handled by different employees?
	Is handling cash prohibited for employees that do not have designated job functions to handle cash?
	Must two or more employees be present to count cash, prepare deposits or reconcile cash transactions (before, during and after business hours)?
	Are the cash handling duties clearly defined for all employees?
	Do employees know their specific responsibilities?
	Are written cash handling procedures available within the cash collection area for employees to review?
	Is incoming mail, which includes checks, opened by an employee who does not prepare deposits and does not have access to patient or student accounting systems?
	Does each employee operate from a separate cash drawer, box or bag?
	If a cash drawer, box or bag is "handed-off" to a relief person, is the cash counted and signed off by both employees?
	Are employees familiar with institutional and departmental cash handling policies?
	Does the Collection Custodian perform daily reconciliations of cash transactions in situations where the number of employees are limited?
